Jedan od istorijskih uvida koji je imao najjeziviju cijenu ispisivanu bjeličastim dimom što je lelujao nad dimnjacima fabrika smrti svakako je onaj o univerzalnosti i neotuđivosti ljudskih prava. Saopštavao je krajnje jednostavnu i notornu stvar – I Jevreji su ljudi. I Romi su ljudi. I komunisti su ljudi. I ateisti su ljudi. I homoseksualci su ljudi. I žene su ljudi. I crnci su ljudi. I azilanti su ljudi. Konačno, i neprijatelji su ljudi.

Tražeći načine da ubrzamo, učvrstimo, odgovornije razumijemo i dublje ukorijenimo taj slaboprimajući koncept i u našoj sredini, ulazimo u četvrtu godinu dešavanja Festivala filma o ljudskim pravima Ubrzaj. Događaji poput ovog mogu nas sudariti sa zastrašujućom nedoumicom – čini se da se nikada nije više govorilo o ljudskim pravima, a da se istovremeno ona nikada nisu perfidnije i hladnokrvnije kršila. Nameće se pitanje – ako nas Aušvic nije mogao uvjeriti u univerzalnost ljudskih prava i neotuđivost ljudskog dostojanstva, što može, odnosno može li bilo šta?

Sjajna selekcija filmova koje imamo priliku da pogledamo u ovogodišnjem izdanju Festivala pokušava da istraje u ovom naporu i suoči nas sa vlastitim granicama u promišljanju ljudskosti. Ko su dobodošli u ovaj koncept, a ko su i dalje uljezi? Za svakog od nas, tek iza ovih granica leži zadatak postajanja čovjekom. Možda je vrijeme da ubrzamo taj proces, jer milijarde pčela napuštaju svoje košnice, a “nestanu li pčele s planete Zemlje, čovjeku ostaju samo četiri godine života” (Ajnštajn).

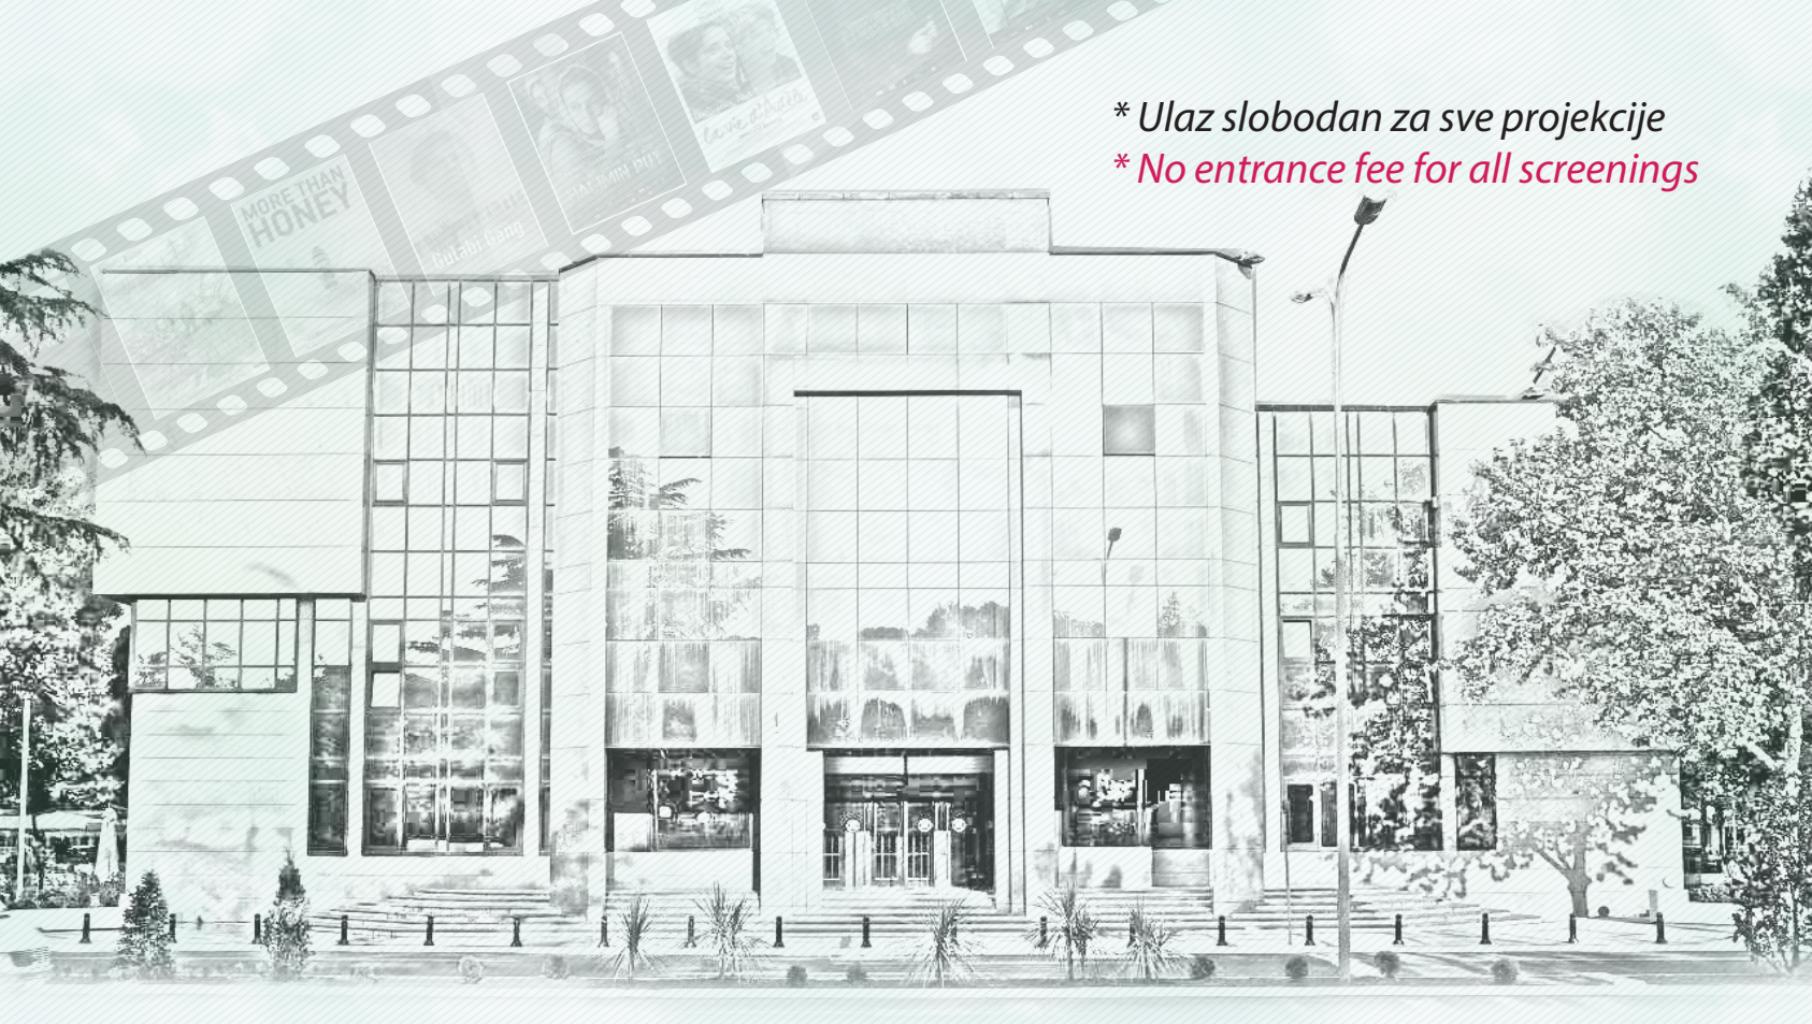

Paula Petričević

The historical episode with the most appalling price, a price scraped into the sky by ashen smoke hovering over the chimneys of death factories, has certainly been the one regarding the unlimited application and inviolability of human rights. It announced a rather simple and notorious thing – the Jewish are also people. The Roma are also people. Communists are also people. Atheists are also people. Homosexuals are also people. Women are also people. Blacks are also people. Asylum seekers are also people. Finally, enemies are also people.

In the attempt to accelerate, consolidate, understand in a more accountable manner, and deeply entrench that poorly accepted concept in our environment, we commence the fourth edition of the Human Rights Film Festival Fast Forward. Events such as this one can confront us with a terrifying confusion – it seems that it has never been as much discourse on human rights and at the same time, human rights have never been more insidiously and cold-bloodedly violated. This raises the question – if Auschwitz could not convince us in the universality of human rights and inalienable human dignity, what can, or – can anything at all?

A magnificent selection of movies that we have a chance to see at this year's Festival attempts to persevere in this effort and make us confront our own boundaries in thinking about humanity. Who are the ones that are welcomed in this concept, and who are those considered intruders? For each and every one of us, the mission of becoming a human being lies only beyond these frontiers. Perhaps the time has come to accelerate the course of this mission, because billions of bees are leaving their hive, and “if bees disappear from the planet Earth, man is left with only four years of life” (Einstein).

Sinopsis

Čin ubistva je film o ubicama koji su pobijedili i film o tome kakvo društvo su napravili. Za razliku od ostarjelih nacija ili počinilaca genocida u Ruandi, Anvar i njegovi prijatelji nisu bili primorani od strane istorije da priznaju da su učestvovali u zločinima protiv čovječnosti. Umjesto toga, napisali su svoju pobjedničku istoriju, postavši uzori milionima mlađih paravojnih formacija. Čin ubistva je putovanje u sjećanja i maštu počinilaca ubistava, koje nudi uvid u umove masovnih ubica. Takođe, film Čin ubistva je košmarna vizija zastrašujuće banalne kulture nekažnjivosti u kojoj se ubice šale na račun zločina protiv čovječnosti na televizijskim emisijama i slave moralnu katastrofu sa lakoćom i elegantnošću poput plesne tačke.

O autoru

Roden 1974. u Teksasu, SAD. Dzošua Openhajmer je radio više od jedne decenije sa policijom, odredima smrti i njihovim žrtvama kako bi istražio odnos između političkog nasilja i mašte javnosti. Školovao se na Harvardu i Univerzitetu Central St Martins, u Londonu, njegovi nagradivani filmovi uključuju i Kasete globalizacije (2003. koreditelj sa Kristinom Sin), Cjelokupna istorija kupovine Luizijane (1998, Zlatni Hugo, Čikago Film Festival), Ova mesta smo naučili nazivati domom (1996, Gold Spire, San Francisko Film Festival) i brojni kratki filmovi. Openhajmer je viši istraživač u britanskom Istraživačkom savjetu umjetnosti i humanističkih nauka za genocide i objavljivao je brojne rade na ove teme.

Synopsis

The Act of Killing is about killers who have won, and the sort of society they have built. Unlike ageing Nazis or Rwandan génocidaires, Anwar and his friends have not been forced by history to admit they participated in crimes against humanity. Instead, they have written their own triumphant history, becoming role models for millions of young paramilitaries. The Act of Killing is a journey into the memories and imaginations of the perpetrators, offering insight into the minds of mass killers. In addition, The Act of Killing is a nightmarish vision of a frighteningly banal culture of impunity in which killers can joke about crimes against humanity on television chat shows, and celebrate moral disaster with the ease and grace of a soft shoe dance number.

Sinopsis

Kada Slavkov stari prijatelj Đulaga umre, on se osjeća dužnim otići na sahranu. Ali u njegovom rodnom gradu Mostaru ova jednostavna društvena obaveza može mu prouzrokovati mnoge probleme: sa komšijama ili čak lokalnim političkim moćnicima. Ukoliko ne ode, njegova žena će ga smatrati kukavicom, ožalošćena porodica mu nikada neće oprostiti – a Slavko neće moći oprostiti sam sebi. Ovo je uvjerljiva priča o svakodnevnom životu u podijeljenom društvu, svijetu u kojem paranoja, komedija i drama koegzistiraju. Takođe, ovo je i pronicljiv psihološki portret čovjeka koji je prisiljen preći nevidljivu granicu koja razdvaja dvije zajednice u jednom gradu. Prije svega, ovo je priča o čovjeku koji je izgubio sve što ga određuje, kada se njegova zemlja raspala.

Synopsis

When Slavko's old friend Đulaga dies, Slavko feels obliged to go to the funeral. But in his hometown of Mostar, in Bosnia & Herzegovina, this simple social obligation has the potential to get him into all kinds of trouble: with his neighbours or even with local political bigwigs. Yet if he does not go, his wife will think he's a coward, the grieving family will never forgive him – and he might have trouble forgiving himself. This is a compelling tale of everyday life in a fractured society, and a world where paranoia, comedy and drama co-exist. It is also an astute psychological portrait of a man who is forced to cross the invisible line that divides two communities. Above all, it is the story of a man who lost everything that defined him, when his country disintegrated.

Sinopsis

Halimin put govori tragičnu ali inspirativnu priču o tugovanju, ali i jakoj volji muslimanke Halime koja pokušava, bez uspjeha, da pronađe posmrtnе ostatke svog sina koji je ubijen u ratu u Bosni i sahranjen u jednoj od mnogobrojnih masovnih grobnica. Ona shvata da mora da pronađe svoju rođaku koja je izbjegla, i koja je u zagonetnoj povezanosti sa njenim sinom. Nakon što je pronađe, Halima otkriva zastrašujuću činjenicu iz njenih najgorih noćnih mora. Sa ovim otkrićem, splet tragičnih događaja iz prošlosti nastavlja se i u sadašnjosti i time ponovo remeti mučne živote protagonisti.

Synopsis

Halima's Path tells the tragic but inspiring story of a grieving, but strong-willed Muslim woman Halima who tries, without success, to find the remains of her son, who was killed in the Bosnian War and buried in one of the many mass graves. She realizes that she must track down her estranged niece, who we find carries a mysterious connection to him. After finding her, Halima discovers a horrifying fact from her worst nightmares. With this discovery, the spiral of tragic events from the past would continue in the present, disrupting once again the troubled lives of the characters.

Sinopsis

U proteklih 15 godina brojne kolonije pčela su desetkovane širom svijeta, ali su uzroci ove katastrofe i dalje nepoznati. Svuda se ponavlja isti scenario: milijarde pčela napuštaju svoje košnice i nikada se ne vrate. U neposrednoj blizini nisu pronađena tijela, niti vidljivi tragovi grabljivaca. U zavisnosti od regiona u svijetu, 50% do 90% pčela iz kolonija su nestale, a ova epidemija se i dalje širi od košnice do košnice – širom planete. Naučnici su otkrili ime za fenomen koji se podudara sa izrazom, "colony collapse disorder", (CCD sindrom) i postoje brojni razlozi za zabrinutost: 80% biljnih vrsta mora biti opršeno od strane pčela. Bez pčela, nema opršivanja, a voće i povrće može da nestane sa lica zemlje. Prije pedeset godina, Ajnštajn je već insistirao na simbiotskom odnosu koji povezuje ove sakupljače polena i čovječanstvo predviđajući: "Nestanu li pčele s planete Zemlje, čovjeku ostaju samo četiri godine života".

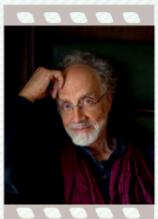

Synopsis

Over the past 15 years, numerous colonies of bees have been decimated throughout the world, but the causes of this disaster remain unknown. Everywhere, the same scenario is repeated: billions of bees leave their hives, never to return. No bodies are found in the immediate surroundings, and no visible predators can be located. Depending on the world region, 50% to 90% of all local bees have disappeared, and this epidemic is still spreading from beehive to beehive – all over the planet. Scientists have found a name for the phenomenon that matches its scale, "colony collapse disorder," and they have good reason to be worried: 80% of plant species require bees to be pollinated. Without bees, there is no pollination, and fruits and vegetables could disappear from the face of the Earth. Fifty years ago, Einstein had already insisted on the symbiotic relationship binding these pollen gatherers to mankind: "If bees were to disappear from the globe," he predicted, "mankind would only have four years left to live."

Sinopsis

Nazif izdržava porodicu sakupljajući staro gvožđe, ali jedva sastavlja kraj sa krajem. Svaki dan on sakuplja otpadni metal, dok njegova supruga Senada brine o njihovom domu i dvije kćerke. Senadina dijagnoza je spontani pobačaj – petomjesečni fetus koji nosi je mrtav. Stanje je kritično i Senadi je potrebna hitna operacija u gradskoj bolnici. Senada nema zdravstveno osiguranje i bolnica traži od nje da za tretman plati 980 konvertibilnih maraka – cijelo bogatstvo za skromnog skupljača željeza. Uprkos Nazifovim molbama, Senadu ne žele operisati i ona se mora vratiti kući. Narednih deset dana Nazif i Senada će u potpunosti iskusiti okrutnost savremenog društva.

Synopsis

Nazif barely makes ends meet as an iron picker to support his family. He searches daily for scrap metal while his partner Senada tends to their home and their two young daughters. A third baby is on the way. After a long days work, Nazif finds Senada laid up in pain. The following day, he borrows a car to drive her to the nearest clinic. The diagnosis is that Senada has miscarried and is still carrying her dead five-month old fetus. The condition is critical and Senada needs immediate treatment at a faraway city hospital. Because she does not have a state-provided health insurance card, the hospital requests that Senada pay 980 Bosnian marks (500 euros), a fortune for a modest iron picker. Despite Nazif's begging, Senada is denied the crucial surgery and forced to return home. For the next 10 days, Nazif will do everything he can to try and save Senada's life - desperately searching for more scrap metal, seeking help from state institutions... For the next 10 days, Nazif and Senada will be fully exposed to the callousness of contemporary society.

O autoru

Danis Tanović, prvi BiH dobitnik Oscara i rekorder po broju nagrada za svoj debitantski film (oko 60) rođen je u Zenici, ali je odrastao u Sarajevu. Godine 1992. doživio je ono što je obilježilo njegov život i karijeru – rat. Prekinuo je studije režije na Akademiji scenskih umjetnosti i priključio se Armiji Bosne i Hercegovine, prvo kao vojnik, a zatim kao dio filmske ekipe. „Pozajmio“ je kameralu s Akademije i počeo bilježiti ono što se događalo oko njega. Materijal koje je snimio korišteni su u brojnim filmovima i reportažama o opsadi Sarajeva i ratu u BiH. Godine 1994. Tanović odlazi u Belgiju gdje nastavlja studije na filmskoj školi INSAS, a nakon što je diplomirao, započinje rad na filmu Ničija zemlja (2001), za koji je napisao i scenario. Tanović dovršava film za samo dva mjeseca i počinje pohod na festivale. Dobija poziv za takmičenje na Filmskom festivalu u Kanu i osvaja nagradu za scenario, a osim na regionalnim festivalima osvaja nagrade (za najbolji film, prvi film, scenario) na važnim svjetskim smotrama. Zatim dolazi i svjetska slava, nakon osvajanja Zlatnog globusa slijedi i Oscar za najbolji strani film. 2001. godine Tanović je opet u društvu svjetske filmske elite jer nastavlja rad na trilogiji inspirisanoj Dantecom (Raj, Pakao i Čistilište) koju je zamislio Krzysztof Kieslowski. Nakon Pakla režira ponovo ratnu temu, Trijaž sa Kolinom Farelom u glavnoj ulozi, pa Cirkus Columbia, sa kojim se metaforički i stvarno vraća kući. Epizoda u životu skulptača željeza je njegov peti dugometražni film.

About the author

Danis Tanović is the first Bosnian winner of the Oscar and won a record for the number of awards to his debut film (60). He was born in Zenica, but grew up in Sarajevo. In 1992 he experienced what characterized his life and career - the war. He interrupted his studies for Director at the Academy for Performing Arts and joined the Army of Bosnia and Herzegovina, first as a soldier and then as a part of the film crew. He "borrowed" the camera from the Academy and began to record what was happening around him. The recorded materials were used in a number of films and documentaries about the siege of Sarajevo during the war in Bosnia. In 1994 Tanović went to Belgium to continue his studies at INSAS Film School and after graduation, he began to work on the film No Man's Land (2001), which he also wrote the screenplay for. Tanović completed the film in just two months and began to take part in several festivals. He received a call for competition at Cannes Film Festival and won the award for Best Screenplay. In addition to regional festivals, he also wins awards at important international festivals as best movie, first movie, best screenplay, etc. Then comes the worldwide fame: after winning the Golden Globe, he is also awarded an Oscar as Best Foreign Film. In 2001 Tanović is again among the world film elite as he continues work on a trilogy inspired on Dante (Heaven, Hell and Purgatory) conceived by Krzysztof Kieslowski. After directing Hell, he directs again a war-themes film, Triage with Colin Farrell in the lead role, and Circus Columbia, with which he metaphorically and actually returns home. An episode in the life of an iron picker is his fifth long featured film.

O autoru

Ivana Todorović je režiserka dokumentarnih filmova iz Beograda, sa strašću za društvene promjene. Njeni filmovi su inspirisani aktivnim likovima i protkani ličnim iskustvom, ljudskim instinktima i načinima preživljavanja u borbi sa traumama. Kao snimateljka i režiserka provela je dosta vremena sa svojim protagonistima\kinjama i na taj način je uspjela snimiti esenciju njihovog života. Stilski rigorozno, cinéma vérité, putovanje vodi publiku u živote onih koji su potisnuti na margine međnstrim medija i društva. U idealnom slučaju, ona bi voljela da publika uroni u humanističke svjetove koji su im nepoznati, kroz iskustva svojih likova.

About the author

Ivana Todorović is a documentary filmmaker from Belgrade, Serbia with a passion for social change. Her films are character driven and are informed by personal experiences of human instincts and modes of survival when dealing with trauma. As a shooter and director, she spends a lot of time in the life of her characters to capture essences of their lives. This stylistically rigorous cinéma vérité journey takes the audience into the lives of those who have been pushed to the margins in mainstream media and society. Ideally, she would like her films to immerse the audience by humanizing worlds unknown to them, through the experience of the characters.

Sinopsis

U fokusu filma Plava je najtoplja boja je petnaestogodišnja djevojčica, Adel, koja je u periodu sazrijevanja i sanja da doživi svoju prvu ljubav. Adelin drug iz odjeljenja se zaljubljuje u nju, ali uznenimirujuća erotika sanjarenja remete romansu prije nego što ona počne. Sa petnaest godina, Adel zaključuje da djevojke izlaze sa momcima i taj zaključak ne dovodi u pitanje. Njen život se zauvijek mijenja kada sretne Emu, mlađu ženu sa plavom kosom, koji će joj omogućiti da otkrije strast, da afirmiše sebe kao ženu, ali i kao odraslu osobu. Naočigled ostalih, Adel raste, traži sebe, gubi sebe, ali uspijeva da pronađe sebe. Ta plavokosa djevojka, samouvjerenja, starija studentkinja umjetnosti, Ema, ulazi u Adelin život, pravi put ka intenzivnoj i komplikovanoj ljubavnoj priči, koja traje cijelu deceniju, a dirljivo je univerzalna svojim prikazom.

Synopsis

Blue is the warmest color centers on a 15-year-old girl named Adèle who is climbing to adulthood and dreams of experiencing her first love. A handsome male classmate falls for her hard, but an unsettling erotic reverie upsets the romance before it begins. At 15, Adele doesn't question it: girls go out with boys. Her life is changed forever when she meets Emma, a young woman with blue hair, who will allow her to discover desire, to assert herself as a woman and as an adult. In front of others, Adele grows, seeks herself, loses herself, finds herself. That blue-haired girl is a confident older art student named Emma, who will soon enter Adèle's life for real, making way for an intense and complicated love story that spans a decade and is touchingly universal in its depiction.
